

Modals & Semi-Modals VERBS

תרגיל 1 Exercise 1

השלימו את המשפטים עם אחד (או יותר) מפעלי-העזר הבאים:

Modal Verbs: can/could • shall/should • will/would • may/might • must

Semi-Modal Verbs: have to/has to • need to • ought to • (be) able to... • (be) allowed to...

1. You _____ (not) always count on me to make you a sandwich.
2. Where is my phone? It _____ be here somewhere...
3. Excuse me, _____ (you) take a picture of me please?
4. She is a good lecturer. You _____ show some respect.
5. It looks like it's going to rain today. _____ (you) shut all the windows, please?
6. The fridge is not working well. We _____ call a technician.
7. The new student in class doesn't speak Hebrew, therefore he _____ (not) understand the material.
8. Danny has just landed, after a long flight. I believe he _____
_____ (not) be interested in going out to a restaurant.
9. I've been waiting for him for more than half an hour now, I _____ (not) wait any longer.
10. I _____ buy new shoes, mine are all torn.
11. Ron is an excellent athlete. I am sure he _____ win the world championship.
12. I met Stacy and Bob in the park. _____ (they) be friends?
13. Please don't worry too much, I know you _____ overcome any fear.
14. Waiter, _____ I have some water please?
15. _____ (you, not) call your mom? – she _____ worry.
16. Dad always tells me that I _____ (not) eat everything that's on my plate.
17. Peter _____ (not) give me his bike, but he did, and so thanks to him I _____ ride with my friends.
18. Henry and I met yesterday, because he said he _____ talk to me.
19. Danny _____ (not) go hiking alone in the mountains. It's too risky.
20. _____ (she) tell George about it?

Modals & Semi-Modals VERBS

Exercise 1 - ANSWERS

1. You cannot / should not (not) always count on me to make you a sandwich.
2. Where is my phone? It must / should be here somewhere...
3. Excuse me, could / would (you) take a picture of me please?
4. She is a good lecturer. You should / could show some respect.
5. It looks like it's going to rain today. Will you be able to / would you (you) shut all the windows, please?
6. The fridge is not working well. We have to / need to / should call a technician.
7. The new student in class doesn't speak Hebrew, therefore he may not / might not / cannot (not) understand the material.
8. Danny has just landed, after a long flight. I believe he would not / may not (not) be interested in going out to a restaurant.
9. I've been waiting for him for more than half an hour now, I don't have to / mustn't / cannot (not) wait any longer.
10. I need to / should / must buy new shoes, mine are all torn.
11. Ron is an excellent athlete. I am sure he will / would / can win the world championship.
12. I met Stacy and Bob in the park. Could they (they) be friends?
13. Please don't worry too much, I know you are able to / can overcome any fear.
14. Waiter, may / could I have some water please?
15. Don't you need to / shouldn't you (you, not) call your mom? – she must / could worry.
16. Dad always tells me that I don't have to / should not (not) eat everything that's on my plate.
17. Peter didn't have to (not) give me his bike, but he did, and so thanks to him I was able to / could ride with my friends.
18. Henry and I met yesterday, because he said he had to / must talk to me.
19. Danny mustn't / shouldn't (not) go hiking alone in the mountains. It's too risky.
20. Does she have to / Is she able to (she) tell George about it?